

We believe that running our business to recognised UK and international standards is important to our customers and it is one of the key drivers behind our continued success.

To ensure that we keep abreast of new developments and maintain the highest standards, Storax Racking Supplies have direct associations with the following institutions:

SEMA Distributor Group

Storax Racking Supplies is a multi 'Supplier of the Year' award-winning inaugural member of the SEMA Distributor Group (SDG) which was established in 2011. If you would like to find out more about the SDG you can visit the SEMA website at: www.sema.org.uk and select the 'SEMA Distributor Companies' tab.

SEMA

Storax Racking Supplies are associate members of the Storage Equipment Manufacturers' Association (SEMA) through our UK parent company Storax Ltd. If you would like to know more about SEMA please visit their website at: www.sema.org.uk

FEM

Our group parent company and factory Ramada Storax in Portugal hold the Presidency of the European Federation of Materials Handling (FEM) there, and take an active part in the formation of European 'EN' design standards for storage equipment.

For more information about FEM please visit their website at: www.fem-eur.com For more information about EN please visit their website at: www.cen.eu
